

ABOUT FUNDACIÓN COMILLAS DEL ESPAÑOL Y LA CULTURA HISPÁNICA

The Comillas Foundation is an international benchmark institution in the teaching, research and diffusion of the Spanish language and Hispanic cultures.

Located in Cantabria, in the north of Spain, it's mission is to foster growth in the knowledge and extension of the Spanish language and Hispanic Cultures. This aim is achieved by promoting social, cultural, and economic cooperation among the Spanish-speaking countries and by facilitating an exchange between them and the rest of the world.

Our professors are scholars with a great teaching experience. By taking this course you will receive a certificate of completion.

COMILLAS TOWN

The Foundation is located in Comillas, an idyllic coastal village in northern Spain with a rich modernist heritage and numerous buildings designed by Gaudí and his colleagues. Classes are held at the Comillas Seminario Mayor (Main Seminary), an impressive restored 19th-century building that has now been turned into a university centre. Comillas offers a peaceful stay, where you can enjoy the sea, the friendliness of the locals and Spanish cuisine.

DATES:

9-13 FEBRUARY / 16-20 FEBRUARY
23-28 FEBRUARY / 02-06 MARCH

ROOM

Students will stay at El Tejo, a comfortable hotel where they will experience a sense of rest and relaxation very close to the impressive and majestic architectural works of Comillas, such as: El Seminario Mayor, El Capricho de Gaudí and El Palacio de Sobrellano.
